A.H.S. Newscast

By Peggy Wooten

Hello there!

This week is full of animation and activity. This is a big week for A. H. S.; it is homecoming. This is the time in each football season that a home game is set aside to honor our football players and cheer leaders. A candidate is chosen from each grade for king and queen. These candidates are voted upon by secret ballot, and the winner is FOOTBALL KING AND QUEEN of '56." This year Peggy Garrett was chosen for queen, and J. D. Guill was chosen for king. There will be a parade tomorrow, led by the Appomattox Band, with floats from all grades and clubs. This will be followed by the game Friday night with Brookville H. S., at the Appomattox ball park. A dance, sponsored by the cheerleaders, will follow the game. Be sure to be present at this big annual affair.

The Juniors have measured for their rings. It won't be long before there will be another set of class rings distributed, only this time the year will be "1957."

A new kind of comedy is being introduced at A. H. S. Yes, this is a play, but not the kind we're used to seeing. It is a Comedy Basketball Game. It will be played by six of the A. H. S. teachers and the girls' basketball team. Those playing are as follows:

Faculty

1. Mrs. Robert McCleany
2. Mrs. H. W. Runkle
3. Mrs. H. E. Kerr
4. Mrs. Louise Brown
5. Mrs. H. A. Gurney
6. Mrs. Marvin Taylor

Varsity

1. Betty Mitchell
2. Shawn Mabley
3. Ann Evans
4. Hilda Woody
5. Frankie Doss
6. Peggy Wooten.

This exciting game is to be sponsored by the S. C. A. to make money for this organization. It will be held during school time, but I will tell you more about the admission and date next week.

Make Up Your Mind,
To Have a Hilarious Time!

There were eleven representatives attending the Hi-Y and Tri-Hi-Y District Conference at Buckingham Central High School Saturday. This conference was held for the election of officers for the Model General Assembly.

The Senior Class has elected its slate of officers for this year. They are as follows:

President, Floyd Fleshman
Vice President, Carol Myers
Secretary, J. D. Guill
Treasurer, Mary Walker Evans
Reporter, Peggy Wooten
Historian, Margaret Deaner.

Our local Tri-Hi-Y is going to sponsor the blessing in our cafeteria. This blessing will be typed on cards and on each table in the cafeteria.

The Traveler needs snapshots! Would you like to see yourself in an unexpected place in The Traveler, other than with your class? Then take some snapshots, and give them to the staff for the annual. When you buy your Traveler, you naturally want to be sure you're getting your money's worth. What's a better way to get it than to be sure it is filled with pictures?

The P.-T. A. is planning a special program for next Tuesday evening at 8:00. It is understood that a very important speaker will be on hand. Tell your parents to make a definite effort to be at this meeting!

The first edition of this year's Commercial Comments will go out next Friday. Make this the best school newspaper by subscribing to it now, and getting that news in!

The Diversified Occupation (D. O.) Club held its first meeting on Friday, Oct. 14, 1955. The following officers were elected:

President, Mark Hipps
Vice President, Robert Martin
Secretary and Treasurer, Jackie Jamerson
Reporter, Jean Mann
Parliamentarian, David Nash.

May I suggest to each class and club reporter to give me all the news they would like to put in the A. H. S. Newscast. In this way I will be able to write-up each activity as it happens.

See You next week!

Peggy.

NEGRO EXTENSION NEWS

On Tuesday, October 11, Walter Berryman was guest speaker at the Carver-Price High School. Berryman is a former 4-H member, Regional Delegate, Veteran of World War II and a Senior at Va. State College. He was chosen as an Extension Farm Youth Exchange delegate to Europe. He visited in England, Italy, Wales and France for 2½ months. The trip was financed and sponsored by the EFYE program, the Extension Service and the local 4-H clubs of Virginia.

Mr. Berryman showed slide pictures he had taken while overseas and told of his many experiences with the English people, their habits, mode of living, their conservation, and methods of farming. He lived with 16 different farm families and visited many of the centuries-old historical sites.

A very interesting statement made was that, the English stop everything for tea. The buses, work in the fields, people in autos, and tea is even served on trains and boats. Berryman said that at no time during his stay in England was he more than 90 miles from water. The talk ended with a question and answer period, and Walter Berryman, expressed his appreciation to all those who played a part in making his experiences possible.

The 4-H NFA Hog Show and Sale was held at the livestock market in Lynchburg, on Monday, October 17. The 4-H boys of Appomattox participating were Herbert Williams and Otis Walker. These boys showed and sold 5 hogs. Their weights were 220 pounds, and 185 pounds for Otis, a pen of three, weighing 575 pounds, average 192 pounds, for Herbert. These animals were raised by these boys especially for this event. Their goal was 200 pounds within a six month age and growing period. The boys received 16 cents per 100 wt. The totals on sales amounted to $156.80. Herbert Williams' pen of three won grand championship of the show of 50 hogs. His prize was $15. We are especially proud of these young men, our future farmers.

Educators plead for improved handwriting.

World ocean ship accidents declined in 1954.

This is a "dawn to dusk" campaign in areas not served by Community Chests to raise necessary funds to operate the Boy Scout Program in the Local Councils of Virginia.

Homemakers Items

Buying sweaters for the family? Miss I. Byrd Johnson, clothing specialist at VPI, says it will pay to know what you're getting.

You have three possible sources of information: the woven label at the back of the neck; a pin ticket either pinned or stapled - for store use primarily; and the hang tag, usually found around a button or through a buttonhole. The hang tag gives the most information on finishes and care. It may give information on sizes, especially for children. Some have a table on height and weight as related to size.

Look for this information: what materials are used, such as wool, orlon, cotton, vicara, etc.; special finishes, such as shrinkage and moth resistance; color fastness to light, perspiration, washing, and dry cleaning; advice on care, how to launder, block, dry, and store. The manufacturer's name and address on the card tells you who is responsible for the product and helps you repeat a satisfactory buy.

Try on sweaters. They vary in size and fit. When buttoned, they should be easy. An extra fullness will provide for growth or shrinkage. Check the fit at neck, shoulders, through the bust or chest, at the front closing, lower edge of garment, and sleeves. Turn back the cuff on children's sleeves to allow for growth. Examine the type of seams, front finish, button holes and buttons, and neck and shoulder finish. They are marks of quality.

Follow the suggested methods of care. If dry cleaning is suggested by the manufacturer, it may be because of the tyne of dye used. Protect from moth damage unless the label indicates a moth repellant finish has been used.

NEWS from HOLLYWOOD

The studios are really keeping Debbie Reynolds busy. As soon as she finishes "Reluctant Debutante" at Metro, she goes into "The One Girl in The World," probably with Frank Sinatra co-starring.

We hear that Jimmy Durante and Marlene Dietrich will be acting together in "Meet Me in Las Vegas."

Linda Darnell, who has made several pictures in Europe, particularly in Italy, just loves Italy, she says. She declares, "I must go back."

Michele Morgan, French actress who never quite made it in this country, is today one of France's greatest feminine stars. She is currently playing "Marie Antionette" for a Parisian movie company.

Screen rights to "Peer Gynt" by Ibsen have been bought by William Dieterle, who plans to direct it in Oslo next spring, with Wolfgang Reinhardt producing.

Universal - International have picked up Martha Hyer's option, with a hike in salary, and plan to take her out of crinolines and Westerns and put her into up-to-date roles. Martha does "The Lady Gambles" on TV.

One of the most-travelled youngsters for his age is the son of Jose Ferrer and Rosemary Clooney. Only a little over six months old, the baby has already been to Europe and flown twice to New York City.

Mario Lanza is expected to finish "Serenade" by the end of this month, at which time he will get a check for $100,000 — the price of a scrip he sold Warner Brothers, titled, "The Great Mario." It is about a Seventeenth Century singer, which has nothing to do with Mario except that he owned it.

EVERGREEN P.-T. A.

Evergreen P.-T. A. held its regular monthly meeting on Monday, Oct. 17, with a good attendance, and four new members. The P.-T. A. agreed to buy Rhythm Band instruments for the primary grades, and also to purchase musical supplies for the elementary grades.

Reports from the various committees were given. The lunchroom committee reported that quite a lot of produce had been given. Also the kitchen had been improved, with a new linoleum rug and cooking utensils. Playground committee reported improvements made. Final plans were made for a Hallowe'en party.

The next meeting will be held on Monday after the third Sunday in Nov. at 7:30 P. M.

MRS. HARWOOD CITES NEED OF CHILDREN'S SOCIETY

"Love and the security of a home are what a little girl needs most of all. And she shall have them through the hard work of the Children's Home Society of Virginia, supported from various community chests and private groups and individuals. The Society, which is the oldest and largest adoption agency in the state, has placed thousands of babies in homes where love and security are plentiful," said Mrs. A. R. Harwood, Jr., who is serving as chairman for Appomattox County in the October drive for funds for this worthy cause. Contributions may be sent to Mrs. Harwood, at Appomattox, or handed to a worker in your community.

Club Offers Services As Baby Sitters

Members of the Tri-Hi-Y Club of Appomattox High School will be available as baby sitters for parents attending the P.-T. A. meeting to be held Oct. 25. For home service, call 2222 on Monday between 3 and 6 P. M., and select your sitter. Some girls will also be at the school, for parents who wish to bring their children with them.

Zastrows At Beekeeper's Convention

Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Zastrow returned home on Thursday after attending the Southern States Beekeepers' Federation Convention at Asheville, N. C., at the George Vanderbilt Hotel, October 10, 11 and 12. The North Caroline Beekeepers' Association was host for the convention.

Mr. and Mrs. Zastrow, of this county, and Mr. and Mrs. John N. DeMuth, of New York; Mr. T. A. Cocks, of Asheville, N. C., and Mr. W. A. Reams, of Folrida, were the guests of honor at a banquet, honoring their fifty years of beekeeping. Each was presented with a piece of crystal trimmed with 22k. gold.

Mrs. Zastrow entered the cooking contest, using honey instead of sugar, for sweetening. She won first prize on honey fruit cake and second prize on honey cookies and first on white light bread.

On October 12, they went on a tour to the Great Smokies and to Cherokee Village, with lunch at the Boundary Tree Motor Court on the Indian Reservation. They then went over the Smokies to Gatlinburg, in Tennessee, by way of Clingman Dome. They report a most pleasant trip.

Moses Asks Big Nov. Vote

State Senator Chas. T. Moses today called attention to the approaching Nov. 8 General Election in Virginia, and expressed the hope that Appomattox County citizens would turn out numbers and vote for the Democratic nominees. He called attention to casting mail ballots where necessary and urged that this matter be attended. Winning candidates in the July Democratic primary are be voted on in the General Election.
